ASSOCIATE – AON INPOINT

We're hiring!

- Can you engage with clients and people around you in an energetic and convincing way?
- Do you take a logical and systematic approach to problem solving?
- Can you prioritise the urgency of multiple requests?

Aon is currently recruiting for an Associate with a focus on growth strategy to join its Aon Inpoint team in Bermuda. Aon Inpoint provides their clients with advisory services and strategic implementation support to help them navigate a fast-changing market environment to drive profitable and sustainable growth and business results. We have privileged access to Aon's proprietary data and its global network of (re)insurance industry experts to derive unique and compelling insights into the sources of competitive advantage in our industry. Most importantly, we help our clients to turn insights into practical actions and tangible returns.

We continue to expand and are looking for the right candidate with a commitment to personal development to take part in our success. We provide highly desirable opportunities for career development and direct access to the most influential decision-makers in our industry.

About the Role

As an Aon Inpoint Associate you will:

- Participate in full lifecycle client engagements by supporting the delivery of distinct work streams and strategic initiatives.
- Conduct market research, financial and data analyses to inform strategic recommendations to clients.
- Support the preparation and facilitation of interviews with clients and Aon colleagues.
- Engage and actively contribute to the production of reports and other client deliverables.
- Work with account and project teams to deliver business focused initiatives and strategic recommendations for (re) insurers to grow and improve their operations performance.
- Actively participate in the identification and communication of recommendations to clients together with the implementation and execution of strategic recommendations.
- Support specific aspects of the client relationship alongside other Aon Inpoint colleagues.
- Support work streams with clients to develop processes, methodologies, and transition strategies that will guide them to the objective future state.
- Work in a collaborative environment with clients and colleagues.
- Assist to manage client relationships.
- Challenge the status quo and internal processes to identify opportunities to work more efficiently.
- Be prepared to travel.

About you

As an Aon Inpoint Associate, your skills, qualifications and background will include:

Skills

- A strong interest in the insurance industry and business in general.
- Business acumen and intellectual curiosity.
- An engaging personality looking for interaction with clients and colleagues.
- Ability to network and engage with all levels of stakeholders (both internal and external).
- An inquisitive mind; strong analytical abilities and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Ability to communicate concisely in a collaborative and client focused manner.
- Proven team player.
- Comfortable with Powerpoint and Excel based analyses.

Qualifications and background:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent.
- Ideally 3 years of experience within an account management activity, in the Insurance/Financial Services sector or in consulting. A strong interest therein if no applicable experience.

About the team

As part of the Aon Inpoint team you will:

- Engage with (re)insurers to support our account teams in delivering business-focused advisory services.
- Work with project teams to deliver distinct projects to help (re)insurers achieve their strategic goals.
- Work with account teams to help drive longer-term initiatives between (re)insurers and the Aon group.
- Develop your internal network to connect with Aon's market practitioners as required by client-focused activities.
